NUCA MOLAS

THE BEAUTIFUL AND ICONIC ISLAND

Nuca Molas is a green hill that offers a captivating panorama. In the local language, "Nuca Molas" means "Beautiful Island." From its peak, you can enjoy a vast expanse of layered hills that resemble waves, small villages in the distance, and the blue sky that merges with the wide-open Flores Sea.

Amid the green hills and the blue Flores Sea stands a white lighthouse, which is a distinctive icon of Nuca Molas. This lighthouse is not only a guide for ships but also a unique landmark that gives the area its own identity. More than just a marker, this white lighthouse is a favorite photo spot that you shouldn't miss.

THE VILLAGE ABOVE THE CLOUDS

WAEREBO

At an altitude of $\pm 1,200$ meters above sea level, a wonder named Waerebo is hidden away. This traditional village, surrounded by tropical forests and morning mist, presents a magical and unforgettable atmosphere. Its main icon, the Mbaru Niang—a traditional conical-shaped house—has been recognized by UNESCO as a world cultural heritage site, becoming a symbol of unity and the heart of the community's life.

Setting foot in Waerebo is not just a journey, but a profound experience. Being warmly welcomed with a traditional ceremony, spending the night in a Mbaru Niang, and being accompanied by a star-filled sky—all of this brings a sense of peace and togetherness that will forever be etched in your memory.
